Appointment of Senators

1300-1324	Address from President Berry	commitment should be fairly light; Senators volunteering during the meeting were: Jones, Ji, & David Points of discussion included: President Berry thanked the Senators for serving. The staff senate president suggested that senate presidents/representatives start attending the administrative council meetings and President Berry supports this suggestion and invited the faculty senate to participate (administrative council comprised of Vice presidents, the foundation, OSPR, legal counsel, and internal auditor). President Berry opened the floor to questions from the Senators. Items asked by the senators included the following: Budget: President Berry reinforced that the University is being proactive and not in trouble. Traditionally the budget has been balanced on attrition; however, this budget cycle is being created to support the budget from other avenues while considering how things may need adjusted based on whether two temporary taxes are renewed. If these are not renewed higher ed and health care will be affected. The Governor asked the BOR to have all y across the state plan for a worse case scenario of 7-9% cuts (equating to $7-9 million for ULM). VPs and Deans worked on scenarios, just in case this happens; however, the President indicated that this is unlikely to occur. For this budget cycle, i dependence on attrition, 2 million was taken out of the budget and the budget was based on 3 million, rather than 5 million. Since President Berry took office, 2 positions total have been lost. Positions are being added to new or growing programs, many of which are in the health sciences. u resources across the University. - # increased over the last four years which includes 11 positions taken out during the retirement incentive program. These funds were shifted to other programs. The university is trying hard to identify external funds to decrease reliance on tuition and state funds and has	President Berry asked to be invited back. Faculty Senate president or representative invited to attend the administrative council meetings. Senators were encouraged to submit ideas, project based or long term, for federal funding to Directors/Deans to create proposals and utilize lobbyists; yU
